Once in a while Dancehall is revitalised with new life, its audience embraces that talent and out of it a new genre of entertainment is born CHI CHING CHING. Born Radion Tashaman Beckford on 19th September 1982 in St Mary, Jamaica to Herbert Beckford and Kathleen Edie, CHI CHING CHING was raised by his father in New Kingston, where he also attended school. As an Adolescent he was not too popular with the ladies, "I was very lanky and poor, Girls were interested in the boys who had money and wore expensive clothes and bag". He found his escapism through music and his solace in dancing, at the end of the school day he would enjoy nothing more than to go home, put on the radio and dance. It's artists such as BUJU BANTON, BOUNTY KILLA, BEENIE MAN who inspired his love for music. His passion of music opened up imaginable possibilities for great accomplishments as an entertainer and one day becoming a household name. In 2003 the family moved to Golden Spring, St Andrew and CHI CHING CHING set about making those dreams a reality.

With Dancehall's pop culture of video-recorded Street Dances, the world took notice of Jamaican residential party nights. DVDs of Dances such as Early Mondays, Passa Passa, Weddy Weddy, Dutty Fridaze and Hot Monday became the homing ground for newcomers to showcase their talent and potentially become the most sort-after Dancehall Entertainer. CHI CHING CHING soon became a popular face and at that time was more familiarly known as All Star. His unique way of standing out soon made patrons and most importantly videographers pay attention and CHI CHING CHING was among others, highlighted as the main feature of these Street Dances. "I would come to the Dance with mi carpet and roll it out and Dance."

There is no set rule in Entertainment, no boundaries and CHI CHING CHING soon set his talents on other musical journeys. He began work with BIG LEAGUE PRODUCTIONS and voiced the hit song, "Lock Pon Di Ting". Credible artists took note and soon requested collaborations with the witty tongue entertainer. His collaborations with BEENIE MAN, ELEPHANT MAN, BLING DAWG and TONY MATTERHORN initiated the catalyst needed to start his rise to international stardom.
