

NAOMI COWAN

Naomi Cowan a.k.a 'Paradise Plum' is undeniably recognised for her infectious, bubbly personality, energetic stage presence and she is gifted with powerful vocal clarity accompanied by a signature raspy tone. This 'daughter of a legacy' has brought a sweet, fresh energy to the Reggae Music industry.

Naomi Cowan, is no stranger to the world of music and entertainment as she is a child of reggae royalty. The youngest of seven siblings, she was born & raised in Kingston, Jamaica under the mentorship of her parents Tommy Cowan, OD (reggae music producer, songwriter & former road manager for Bob Marley) & Carlene Davis-Cowan, OD (international reggae vocalist). Touted as one of the Caribbean's top rising female artists, Cowan was recognized as the Breakthrough Reggae Artist of 2018 at the 2019 Jamaica Reggae Industry Awards. With a musical background in piano and acoustic guitar, Naomi has developed a knack for finding beautiful top line melodies with catchy hooks.

Her first release "Naked" was the first song Naomi wrote on guitar and now her signature hit "Paradise Plum" rocketed Naomi to reggae music fans across the world and propelled her to several international platforms in music and media. She aims to refresh and empower listeners with her music. With a European tour ahead of her in November 2019, her supporters can look forward to seeing Naomi perform her original reggae/rocksteady releases such as "The Way," "Gold," "You're Gonna Lose" feat Mark Pelli (member of the billboard chart topping Reggae-Pop group Magic!) and her upcoming releases "One True Love" and "Peace of Mind." Naomi is most looking forward to releasing her afro-beat banger "Climbing." She has received organic support as a featured and playlisted artist from major digital music platforms including Sirius XM Radio, Pandora, Tidal, Spotify & Apple Music.

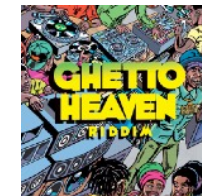

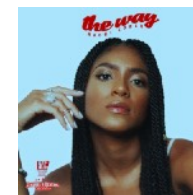

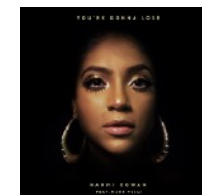

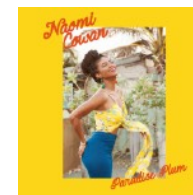

Naomi has performed live in London, Sweden, Trinidad, Miami, Toronto, New York, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands & across the island of Jamaica. The former Miss Teen Jamaica's passion for youth empowerment can be seen through her work with youth in both Toronto & Jamaica. She is a speaker and mentor for the We Inspire Girls to be Strong Women tour, Manifesto Jamaica and the We Transform Jamaica program.

naomicowan.com

PRESS & MEDIA

RELEASED MUSIC

SOCIAL MEDIA

